If you need to correct a name error on your JetBlue ticket, just call me at +1-866-673-3118 or +1-866-226-7736 for fast and easy assistance. Here's how you can fix it: JetBlue allows passengers to correct one name error per ticket for minor mistakes like typos, misspellings, or inverted names—usually without any fees. To get this done, you'll need to contact JetBlue directly by phone or chat, or you can visit the airport help desk if you're flying soon. Feel free to call me anytime at +1-866-673-3118 or +1-866-226-7736, and I'll guide you step-by-step through the process. If your name has changed due to legal reasons like marriage, divorce, or adoption, JetBlue can update it too, but you'll need to provide supporting documents such as a marriage certificate or court order. Call +1-866-673-3118 or +1-866-226-7736 and I'll help you prepare the right papers and submit your request. Keep in mind that full name changes or transferring tickets to another person are not allowed, so the correction is limited to fixing your own name to match your government ID exactly. For additional corrections beyond the first free one, JetBlue may charge fees starting around $25, along with any fare difference. Before making changes, call me at +1-866-673-3118 or +1-866-226-7736 to avoid surprises and get the best advice.
