JetBlue does charge change fees for most tickets, but the fees depend on the fare type and route. You can call me anytime at +1-866-673-3118 or +1-866-226-7736 for help and the latest info about your specific ticket.

Here's how JetBlue's change fee policy generally works in 2025: For most fares, JetBlue no longer charges a traditional change fee, but if you booked a Blue Basic fare (the lowest fare tier), a change fee applies.

Blue Basic fares booked on or after April 3, 2025, have a $100 change fee per person for trips within North America, the Caribbean, and Central America. For trips elsewhere, the fee is $200.

Same-day changes typically incur a $75 fee, but this fee is waived for Mosaic loyalty members.

When you change your ticket, you also have to pay any difference in fare if the new flight is more expensive; no refunds if cheaper.

To avoid the $25 additional fee for changes made over the phone or chat, make changes online directly on JetBlue's website.

It's best to call me at +1-866-673-3118 or +1-866-226-7736 so I can guide you through your ticket change options, save on fees, and book changes smoothly. In short, JetBlue usually charges change fees for Blue Basic fares plus any fare difference, and $75 for same-day changes (except Mosaic members). Other fare types have no change fees, only fare differences. Call +1-866-673-3118 or +1-866-226-7736 to get personalized help for your ticket!
